

THE WORSHIPFUL COMPANY OF ARMOURERS AND BRASIERIS

Mrs Nicola Davies Master

Nicky was born and brought up in Cambridge. She read Literae Humaniores (classics, ancient history and philosophy) at Lady Margaret Hall, Oxford and then studied law at The Council of Legal Education in London. She was called to the Bar by Middle Temple in 1978. The same year she married and moved to Liverpool where her husband John was a professor at the University.

Nicky was employed by The Crown Prosecution Service for most of her working life. In the early years she spent her time largely in court but then joined the newly-established Mersey/Cheshire Complex Casework Unit. Here her work involved advising the police on murders, drugs conspiracies and firearms offences and preparing these cases for trial. She was also responsible for drafting European arrest warrants for the Merseyside CPS area. She retired in 2014.

Nicky and John have remained in Liverpool following retirement. They have two grown up children, Martin and Penny, who live and work in Bath and London respectively. Nicky is a Governor at a local primary school and a Volunteer Reader with The Reader Organisation. In this role she reads prose and poetry each week to an elderly lady with very poor vision and a very lively mind. Nicky also enjoys travel, opera and the theatre, all of which she has missed in recent months.
